

PANIC!: Call Out for Artist Bursaries (£1,000)

PANIC! invites artists to submit applications for £1,000 bursaries.

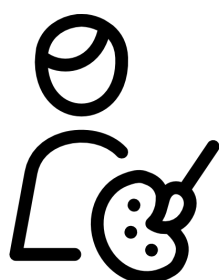

This means we use money

To pay artists to make new work

That everyone can enjoy, especially Artists.

Artists will work with The Tetley to present the bursary online.

Share work or work in progress online. This could be a discussion, screening, performance or digital exhibition.

Bursaries are available to artists based in the Leeds City Region.

We fund contemporary visual artwork in any media moving image, book, print, painting, sculpture, performance, sound, etc.

Brief:

‘In our times... new, strange, dark, difficult, challenging, sad, interesting, unforeseen, unimagined...’

These artists will create new works that help us think through these new pandemic conditions.

Bursaries will create a voice to explore experiences, pressure and possibility.

Think about issues and experiences of race, class, gender, sexuality and disability.

Budget and Resources

The total budget is £1,000.

At least £750 of this budget should be spent on fair artist fees \(click here\).

£250 is for production, such as materials, equipment, travel, technicians and documentation.

10%

Selected artists can be paid £900, with the remaining 10% paid after delivery.

Bursary artists will work with The Tetley through an artist contract.

Marketing, staff support and a digital platform will be paid for separately by The Tetley.

Access to The Tetley's equipment and resources.

Access to The Tetley's Event spaces for meetings, rehearsals, filming etc

Support and Access

Our opportunities are accessible to all.

We work with each artist on an access 'rider' document to share disability access needs.

Selection Process

If we have everything we need from you, your application will be sent to five Steering Group members to review based on if your proposal;

- Responds to the brief of “In our times...”

- Creates a voice

- Engages with PANIC!’s aims, activity and supports a wider network of artists

- We prioritise artists who have not benefited from significant projects or institutional opportunities.

- We are committed to, and have capacity to, support artists who are: disabled, learning disabled, with long-term health conditions, neurodivergent, LGBTQ+, asylum seekers, refugees, working class, Black and artists of colour and/or have not gone through formal art education.

Decisions will be made by discussion and consensus.
